Thank You!

Our lovely interns, from Tokyo Women's Christian University, Kasumi, Mayu, Namiko will be returning home this weekend. Their last day of school is Friday, September 19th. They have been a wonderful addition to our school, preparing for the school year and assisting students' learning in Japanese. The interns have been also enjoying working with our students everyday.

We will miss them very much!

If you are interested in hosting interns, please contact Nami Brown (Andy 1st).

Parents' Daily English Homework and Procedures

Dear Parents,

- Thanks for correcting the Explode the Code short vowel packets with stars, happy faces or stickers. Check for correct D'Nealian letter formation on the last page.
- Thanks for turning in HW packets and Pizza Reading Record in the HW folder each Friday. (Put the HW folder into the empty Thursday envelope and place it into your 8:20 teacher's HW box).
- Thanks for listening to kids read the blue-slipped work, signing the blue slips, and returning the blue slips (only) to school.
- Thanks for helping your child complete yellow-slipped work at home. Return the entire packet, with yellow slip, to Nancy Sensei's HW box. Many students had unfinished classwork on Monday and Tuesday because they were out of class being tested.
- Thanks for listening to your child read each night. Don't forget that your reading to them each night, modeling reading fluency, counts as part of their 20 minutes of nightly reading practice this first term.
- Thanks for sending in snacks. We are sharing them among all three first grade classrooms.
- Thanks for helping your child master the pink High Frequency Words.

You've been supportive and fantastic! ありがとう!
