Observation - Anything you see, hear, taste, smell or touch. Your senses can be enhanced with technology. When you make an observation you don’t make assumptions. Just describe the details/facts/evidence.

Inference - You make guesses as to what you think is going on based on your observations. you use your experiences, prior knowledge, imagination and creativity to fill in the missing pieces. Inferences should be supported by relevant observations.