How Much Do You Know about Self Esteem?

Name ______________________
Date ______________________
Period _____

DIRECTIONS: Using your best guess, circle true or false.

T 1. How you feel about yourself affects everything you do in life.

T 2. People respond positively to people who like themselves.

T 3. Most people think they’re great.

T 4. A baby learns whether he/she is a worthwhile person or not a worthwhile person by how he/she is treated early in life.

T 5. People who are intelligent or good-looking almost always have high self-esteem.

T 6. If you like yourself, others will like you too.

T 7. If a person is told frequently that he/she is incapable of doing something, that person probably believes that he/she can’t do it.

T 8. Once you believe you are worthwhile, you no longer feel the need to “fake it”. Instead, you feel comfortable showing others “the real you.”

T 9. The feelings others have about us never become our feelings about ourselves.

T 10. People can learn to like themselves even if they think others don’t like them.

T 11. It’s possible to get everyone to like you

T 12. We become what we think we are.

T 13. You don’t have to be perfect to be worthwhile. You only have to be yourself.

T 14. Some people who are afraid of failure don’t ever try.

T 15. The only way to truly like yourself is to be perfect at the things that are important to you.

T 16. People try hard to avoid making mistakes, but no one succeeds at it.

T 17. Of the billions of people in the world, there are only a few exactly like you.

T 18. Neither your accomplishments nor your looks add anything to your true, basic worth.
How Much Do You Know about Self Esteem?

Name ________________________
Date ________________________
Period ____

T F  19. Feeling like a rotten person does not prove you are rotten, merely that you think you are.

T F  20. Being different from everyone else in the world makes you special.

T F  21. People who brag about their accomplishments often have very low self-esteem.

T F  22. There is no such thing as a worthless human being.

T F  23. Everyone has some things to be proud of.

T F  24. Having good feelings about yourself means you’re conceited.
(conceited = think and act like you are better than others.)

T F  25. Each person has talents and abilities just waiting to be discovered.

T F  26. “Once a failure, always a failure”.

T F  27. Your mind is like a tape recorder, taping what people say to you about yourself and then playing it back to you.

T F  28. Trying to talk to yourself in a kind way is silly.

T F  29. What you say to yourself about your own worth never determines how you feel about yourself.

T F  30. If you tell yourself you are going to fail at something, you’re more likely to fail.